Personal Intelligence.

When in St. Joseph the other day we had the pleasure of meeting our old-time youth comrad, Capt. David Pinger, who had just returned from Dresden, Germany, where his family is, for the present, domiciled. We are indebted to him for many interesting particulars concerning the re-united Fatherland, etc. Mrs. Pinger and children, it seems, are so well pleased with their sojourn in Dresden, the ancient capital of Saxony, that they will remain in that city until the summer of 1876, when they will return to America. The Captain looks the very picture of health as does also his son, Frank Pinger, who returns with him to the United States after an absence of two years.

—Mr. Pinger informs us that he will commence packing pork in a short time.

—Robert Stuart, for a long time a resident of Forest City, moved to St. Joseph with his family on Monday, the 15th.

—Mr. Watson Baker, formerly of Holt county, but now of Smith county, Kansas, illuminated our sanctum on Monday evening of this week—bale and hearty as can be. Mr. Baker likes his new home in northwestern Kansas first-rate, and says it cannot be surpassed as an agricultural and producing country. He has many good things to say of the near far west, and says there are quite a number of people out from Holt county, but says there is room for more.

—Mr. & Mrs. Vinsonhaler of Hughes township, Nodaway county, were over on Sunday and Monday, visiting their friends in Forest City.

—John Kunkel, ex., a well known citizen of Nodaway township, has safely arrived in the mines in Nevada.

—Uncle Henry Kunkel and son left here the other day for the Solomon river gold mines.

—Mr. Thos. H. Barnes, returned from Buchanan county on Wednesday where he has been to visit his unfortunate aged father, whose terrible mishap at Saxton Station we print on the outside of this issue. Old Mr. Barnes is in his 79th year, and the wheels of the wagon, breaking both his legs below the knee, passed over his breast, inflicting, it is feared, serious internal injuries.

—Mrs. Kate Holz, the Postmistress of this city, is visiting this week at her sister's in Kansas City.

—Dr. S. B. Lukens, dentist of this city, left here a few days ago for the Buckeye State. He expects to visit Friends and intends to be gone some time.

—Mrs. Wolf, of Forest City, is visiting in Brown county, Kansas.

—Judge Sam. Ensworth, of St. Joe, came over on the 4 o'clock train yesterday morning, and soon thereafter illuminated our "sanctum" with his presence.

—Col. B. B. Frazer, and Capt. John Vanderlinde, both of St. Joseph, were in town on Wednesday.

—Mr. Francis Freytag, the agreeable landlord of the Graham Hotel, was in town on Wednesday and favored our sanctum with a call. He says, the enthusiasm for the Railroad is unbounded, and believes Hughes township will vote the required stock by a big majority.

—The taxes for the year 1875 become due on the 1st day of December, and for all taxes remaining unpaid on and after said date, the personal property of the Tax payer becomes liable to be seized and sold for such taxes. The law is imperative, and all persons owing taxes for said year on and after the first day of December will be proceeded against in compliance with the law; save time and much trouble by settling your tax at your earliest convenience. Respectfully,
W. G. MCINTYRE, Coll. Rev.
Holt county, Mo., Oct. 11, 1875.

—In this age of scepticism, facts are required to inspire confidence in the minds of the people; but, with good reasons, they are willing to test any claim claiming extraordinary merit. The proprietors of Holt's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer offer the following endorsement of the merits claimed by them for their preparation, by the "Christian Advocate," a well known religious paper, published in St. Louis, Mo., under date of Nov. 18, 1875, and each dated Oct. 26, 1875:—Furnish this paper by Cox & Co., Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C.

THOSE SERENADES.

We are an ardent lover of music, both vocal and instrumental, and have always been moved by "concert of sweet sounds." Our peaceful slumbers on the night of the 11th instant were somewhat abruptly and agreeably broken by the strains of inspiring music. We lifted the curtain, and owing to the shades of midnight, could designate none of the countenances of the friendly artists who thus honored us. But we did discern in the harmony of sound, the violin, the guitar, the b flat and bass horns, and we were afterward told that the Messrs. Foster and son, D. M. Martin, J. A. Beaumont, Gus Stone, under the lead of Chris Kunkel, all of Oregon, were the artists who had delighted us with their excellent strains.

Two hours later in the night, some what after the hour of two in the morning—just as Mr. Curry's rooster was setting his bill for a lusty crow—the SEXTON office was visited a second time by a band of serenaders, and sleep was once more banished from our eyes. The piece that they struck up lifted us plump out of bed, and in our fantasy we imagined that we had arrived at the crystal gates of immortal bliss! The amateur serenaders who came with their music, we learn, had come all the way from our sister town of Forest City, and we regret that we did not learn a single name of the troupe.

And what do these midnight concerts mean, kind reader? We are too humble an individual to think that they are intended for us personally and solely. Nay, we accept them as a recognition of the services which the SEXTON rendered in the cause of good government, sound morality and pure religion.

—The serenaders were too humble an individual to think that they are intended for us personally and solely. Nay, we accept them as a recognition of the services which the SEXTON rendered in the cause of good government, sound morality and pure religion.
